

Keeping an Eye Out for Ear-Tickers – Romans 16:17-20

My Story

1. What has been one of the wisest warnings you have ever received? Who gave it to you? What was the situation?

Digging Deeper

2. Do you think Paul would issue the same warnings about false teachers today as he did in Rom. 16:17-18? Why?
3. What does it look like for a person to not serve Christ, but their own appetites instead (v.18)?

4. What sort of potential impacts can divisive teaching have on a church?

Reflection

5. What is the difference between smooth/flattering speech and just being kind with our words?
6. What are some teachings that divide the church today? How do we find a balance between the desire for unity and the need to maintain truth?

SERMON NOTES

Keeping an Eye Out for Ear-Ticklers – Romans 16:17-20

Taking the Next Step

On Sunday we talked about 3 valuable tests to apply to any teaching in the church: 1) Does it agree with Scripture? 2) Does it glorify the Lord Christ? 3) Does it promote goodness? Commit these to memory and use them with every teaching you hear.

Praises / Prayer Requests

